

THE 12

DUTCH won't Let us have

DUNKIRK,

AND

1474 b 3

High Treason happily Discover'd.

OR THE

D-tch Und———'d.

With the shortest Way to understand aright, and Confute any Dutch Mmorial whatsoever. And the reasons why those that Massacred the English at Amboyna, so Malitiously and Barbarously; Thwart the General
Peace of Europe, and the Advantage and Welfair of Great Britain at this Time.

Printed in the YEAR, 1712.

THE
DUTCH won't Let us have
DUNKIRK
AND
High Treason happily Discover'd.
Or The
D-tch Und———'d.

I shall first lay this Down as an irrefutable Maxim, that never did any Sovereign and Ministry, so Unanimously and Cordially, Concert and Pursue the General Welfare of these Kingdoms, and the Universal Good of all Mankind; as Her most Excellent Majesty Queen Anne, and her Present Loyal Ministry.

In the next place, in order to understand a Dutch M——morial aright it would be necessary for every Loyal Subject of Great Britain to Consider Consider that for an Antimonarchical State, to pretend to use the word Majesty as they ought, is all a meer Banter, for having no other Nations of Majesty among them; but that it is to be rooted out, wherever it is in their Power, they are bred up in an abhorrence of it, and with their very Milk, suck in an Antipathy against Majesty; Just as our Whiggs do against Monarchy.

Therefore when they Cry, we have an Esteem, a Respect, a Value, and Affection, or Veneration, for any Bodies Majesty whomsoever; tis all a Damn'd Lie; For they hate Majesty more then they do the Devil, and treat Majesty as Barbarously as they did the English at Amboyna, or as inhumanely as the Calves-Head Faction in Forty One Treated and Continue to Treat King Charles the first.

When they profess they would fain Cultivate a good understanding with Great Britain, they only mean, they would gladly take us on the Blind side: and Fawn upon us, only to watch an opportunity to stabb our happy Constitution; so as Guiscard did The Right Honourable Mr. Harley.

And when they Cry, we would gladly give Great Britain all Possible Marks and Testimonies, of our firm and inviolable Adherence to them; Brave Countrymen and Loyal Fellow Subjects jects; you are maturely to Consider, they only mean, they are unwilling to leave us, till they leave us not worth a Groat, nay not worth a Pilchard or a Herring, by their Good-will, Here's a Dutch way of Sticking close to us, with a Vengeance: for which to give the Devil his Due, they ought to be call'd, the Crab-Lice of Europe.

And to prove they have an intimate Kindness for us, we find them stealing the Meat out of our very Mouths, on all occasions; thus they Fish for our Herrings and Pilchards, &c. on our Coasts, under our Noses, in spite of our Teeth.

If Great Britain gain, or is but in the least likely to gain any Advantage whatever, they clamour against it, just as our Whiggs do against entire Obedience to their natural Sovereign; but if we any ways interfere with their Trade, Amboyna's the Word, nothing but a Massacre can atone for it.

The French in the Massacre at Paris, had this lame Pretence for it, that it was in Defence of their establish'd Religion, against the avowed Enemies of it; but the avow'd Enemies of our Establish'd Church, the Dutch, had no other pretence for the Massacre of the English at Amboyna; than any Person has for Murdering a pious King, an indulgent Parent, or a most generous Benefactor.

Did

Did not England in Queen Elizabeth's time, preserve the poor and distressed States of Holland from their utter ruin ?

Was not England a nursing Mother to their State in its Infancy ? with infinite and immense Benefits besides, which from time to time they have receiv'd from us.

What Returns have the D - ch made us since ? Why sought us three Times in a Summer, with ninety Sail of Men of War at a Time, when they had but Seven Provinces in their Hands, and now we have won th m almost the whole seventeen, they cannot assist us with the tenth Part so many, tho' we give them all we Conquer, and tho' all our ready Mony flows into their Coffers.

Here's Mother Shipton's Prophecy fulfill'd with a Vengeance.

*When Italy begins the Dance,
Shall trip thro' Germany, Spain, and France,
And into Scotland makes a Leaper,
Then England shall pay the Piper.*

But I doubt not, that the present Minister in spite of the D - tch Dunderheads. will make such an advantageous Peace, in relation to our Commerce, (since England has already paid the Piper so many hundred Millions Sterling) as will in a great and good Measure reimburse us the Charges of the War, which we have paid the D - tch Piper.

Their

There is not a D--tchman in that Antimonarchical C---m--n-W---lth, but has more Venome in his Heart, and between his Teeth, against Majesty and Monarchy, than there is Venom under the Teeth of a Snake or a Serpent. and yet these very D--tchmen, were chosen by the late M--n--stry for Guardians to our Monarchy.

You may Judge hereby from what Quarter our Animosities against the French have sprung, and been so immoderately nourish'd :

We cannot indeed be too suspicious and well provided against the Treacheries of France ; but I am sure we cannot be too precautions, and too much forearm'd, against the Undermining You-tricking D---tch.

Who Massacred us at Amboyna,

Plunder us on all Occasions,

Devour our Conquests in Flanders.

Spirit up our Inveterate and restless Faction at Home. Give our P—rl—m—t the Lie. Take upon them to Instruct and direct our great Q—n and M—nstry ; Just as if they were already become our Guardians. Envy Us all the Blessings and Advantages of a Peace. Load us with the Intolerable Burthen of the War. Oppose the Queens Glorious designs, of Restoring Universal Peace to the World. Invade our Fisheries and Coasts. Ineroach on our Sovereignty on the Seas. Keep the Cash of our Treacherous Subjects in their B—nks. Let their Mobb Curse and Injure our August Q—n and her faithful People, openly in their Streets, to our Faces, if not by

by Encouraging of it, yet at least, with free Toleration or Impunity: What can our open Enemies the the French do more ? This is but a moderate Description of their Barbarities to Us.

I shall conclude this by Informing my Loyal Country-men why the D—ch have hitherto so Presumptuously, and Violently, and with such barefac'd Virulence, oppos'd the Auspicious measures of our Blessed QUEEN and her present entirely English Ministry, concerning a Glorious General Peace, and the Advantage and Welfare of Great-Britain, at this Time. Which a certain Rich Noble P—r, lately come from Holland, happily penetrated into and discovered.

The Traiterous Junto, of the Grandees of the Faction (whom her M—j—sty, Charges with pursuing such Trafonable Designs, as they Dare not own) Have written Letters with their own Hands. to the H—g—n Mog—n Delighters in War in Holland, that if they could but Invalidate the Pious Endeavours. of Her M—j—sty and M—n—sty, as to the General Peace and Welfare of Great Britain and Europe at this Juncture; they could assure them, they would reduce Great-Britain in a little Time, to such a condition, as to be glad to comply with the Basest Terms; the Antimonarchical D—tch should condescend to impose on Us.

Let every Honest and Loyal Subject of Great Britain, abhor such Traiterous Villains and rise as one Man in Defence of their Native Country, to reduce such Ingratefull and Treacherous upstarts, to their Original oblivion and contempt.

POST-

P O S T S C R I P T

AS a Specimen, that the D—tch will neither let us gain any thing by a Peace; nor bear their Quotaes for the War, (tho' the French offer to put Dunkirk into our Hands as a Token of their sincerity,) yet those Enemies of our Welfare and Commerce, will rather come to a Rupture with us, than suffer it. So great is the Malice of these murderers of us at Amboy-na, that they would Massacre us again: rather then let us have Dunkirk. Which has done more Mischief to the common cause, and Especialy to Old England, than all the Towns in Flanders are worth, and would rather Dash out the Brains of our Subjects against the Walls of a Petty-Quesnoy, then let us have Dunkirk put into our Hands, without the Effusion of Christian Blood, so tis Neither the Common Cause the Dutch fight for, nor the Cause of Humanity, but they only would Continue the War, that they might be Enrich'd and we Might be Undone.

This is a True Picture of Dutch Gratitude.

F I N I S.

